

Miscellaneous.
New Bedford is said to have but one whaler left—a schoolmaster.

Parisian ladies are said to "look like pencils covered with rain."

"You'll build the fires or I'll be a wife," is the way the Fat Contributor's wife talks.

Our devil "lifted" the first stick of type he ever set, and "lifted" it successfully too—into the "space" box.

The only thing children can't see partially in is who gets the biggest end of the bootjack when the old lady gets mad.

The schoolmaster who sat down on the "business end" of a pin that had been ingeniously fixed on his chair, rose like a Phoenix.

An Indiana man picked up a wild cat in his barn in place of an Afghan. He detected the difference in the mill-throat part of a second.

An old lady in Detroit, hearing that American girls were dead, remarked: "I've allus said that this tight lacing would lay 'em out some day."

Some papers are always talking of their independence and sneering at "organs." Isn't it better to be an organ than a tyre?—Alta California.

"Patrick," said an old gentleman to his servant, "we are all creatures of fate." "Well, if it wasn't for fate, how the devil could we walk, sure?" Cincinnati Saturday Night.

We shall never smile again until we exchange photographs with the young man that put shoemaker's wax on the benches of the front portico of this office.—Easton Free Press.

A Detroit woman who was turned out of her house for non-payment of rent, went out in good style, putting on silks and jewelry, and having her hair frizzed in extra style for the occasion.

A down-country farmer who put in a half acre with turnips last summer, says they didn't bring him a cent. He should try onions next year. They always bring a scent.—Norristown Herald.

Why was the cleansing of the Auegan stables like a piece of ancient Mexican pottery ware? Because it was an Aztec kind of a job. [Voice of the speaker choked with emotion.] Prairie City Herald.

This is the way the newspapers talk in Louisiana: "If that convicted thief and robber, Jim Walker, wants any fuss with us he can have steel or buckshot in unlimited quantities by poking his nose around our corner."

A New York merchant has been detected measuring thirty-four inches to the yard. Two inches is nothing on a towel, but it tells heavily on a woolen shirt when the thermometer drops down.—Detroit Free Press.

A lady put her watch under her pillow the other night, but couldn't keep it there because it disturbed her sleep. And then, when the time was her bed-ticking right underneath her, and she never thought of that at all.

If there is anything that will bring tears to the eyes of an Indian tobacco sign it is to witness a young lady undergoing the trying ordeal of endeavoring to bring a fallen clothes-line, full of clothes, to a realization of its solemn duty.

The scateration of damp Autumn leaves on Saturday was poetically melancholy, but not half so melancholy as it was to notice how all a man's carefully gathered theological ideas were scattered by sitting down upon their treacherous slippers.

Reporters should always be even tempered men, but when one rushes wildly ten squares to get a vivid account of a man breaking his leg, he may be excused if he can't find any words in the dictionary to suit the occasion when he discovers it is a wooden leg.—Easton Free Press.

I say, Sambo, where did you get that shirt studs?" "I do not know, to be sure." "Yah, you just told me you hadn't no money." "Dat's right." "How did you get 'em den?" "Well, I saw on a card in de window, 'collar studs,' so I went in and collared 'em." Ohio Valley News.

The Yonkers Gazette wisely remarks: "When you see a young married man contemplating baby carriages with a calm and thoughtful eye, you may reasonably infer that the matrimonial sky is bright, serene, and a little sunny." But "you had daughter" not be too sure of that. Norristown Herald.

The Shelbyville (Ky.) Republican says that the worst case of selfishness that it has been permitted to present to the public, emanated from a youth who complained because his mother put a bigger mustard plaster on his younger brother than she did on him, after they had been eating melons and hard apples.

A white minister at a colored wedding said, "On such occasions as this it is customary to kiss the bride, but in this case we will omit it." To this unclerical remark the indignant bridegroom very pertinently replied: "On such occasions it is customary to give the minister ten dollars, but in this case we will omit it."

A Washington telegram says the "sugar refiners continue in much trouble about Secretary Bristow's order reducing the drawback." But as long as the Secretary doesn't issue an order reducing the "pullback," the ladies will be able to get along—without they couldn't do it if it was reduced any more than it is at present.—Norristown Herald.

Postmaster Parke lately received a letter addressed to the landowner in Whitehall. It was whispered about one evening, when the next day his office was besieged by pretty girls, all inquiring for the letter. He has since received a letter addressed to the landowner in Whitehall, which has been sent to the dead letter office. Whitehall Times.

The recent suspension of the Burlington (Vt.) Sentinel, Democrat, leaves the State of Vermont without a single Democratic journal.

A LECTURE TO YOUNG MEN.
Just Published, in a Sealed Envelope. Price six cents.
A LECTURE on the Nature, Treatment, and Radical Cure of Seminal weakness, or Spermatorrhea, induced by Self-Abuse, Involuntary Emissions, Impotency, Nervous Debility, and Impediments to Marriage generally; Consumption, Epilepsy, and Fits; Mental and Physical Incapacity, &c. By ROBERT J. CULVERWELL, M. D., author of the "Green Book," &c.
The world-renowned author, in this admirable Lecture, clearly proves from his own experience that the awful consequences of Self-Abuse may be effectually removed without medicine, and without dangerous surgical operations, bleedings, instruments, rings, or cordials; pointing out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual, by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.
This Lecture will prove a boon to thousands and thousands.
Sent, under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, on receipt of six cents or two postage stamps.
Address the Publishers,
